MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL

360 Lynn Fells Parkway

617-662-2000

On behalf of the Class of 1995, the LOG would like to dedicate this book to Mr. Claude H. Croston, who has played an important part in Melrose High School since 1958, and is retiring at the end of this year with our class.

Mr. Croston was born and raised in Haverhill, Massachusetts. In 1952 he graduated from Haverhill High School, where he was a star in both track and football. He went on to Wake Forest University and continued his football career for the next four years. After serving in the Army, Mr. Croston attended Boston State College, where he completed his Masters Degree in Education. In 1958, he came to Melrose High School and began teaching both Social Studies and Psychology.

Mr. Croston's involvement went far beyond the classroom, however, as he coached football, tennis, and track. In September of '72, his hard work and dedication paid off when he was made assistant principal of MHS. He continued to add particular character to the school, and in 1975 he became principal.

To quote a colleague and former student, "Mr. Croston's genuine love for his kids and his fairness and loyalty to his students and teachers are what made him so popular as a teacher, coach, and principal. It didn't matter what the student had done, whether an innocent classroom prank in the '60's or a pulled-fire alarm in the '90's — if you were honest, he was there for you. Tough, but fair."

Mr. Croston has been married to his wife, Dolores, for thirty-five years, and he has five children: Patrick, Christina, Timothy, Sean, and Kara. These days, you can find him enjoying his free time, either on the golf course with his friends or in the garden with his wife.

Throughout his years at Melrose High School, Mr. Croston has touched the hearts of all who know him. He is not only well-liked, but respected and admired by students, teachers, parents, and family. From all those in the Class of 1995 (his little chickens), Thank You Mr. Croston.

Now we all know that when we came to the high school as freshmen, our reputation preceded us, and that reputation was not at all a positive one. "Wait until you see the Class of '95!" they said. "Such trouble-makers; absolutely no discipline!" But here we are in our Senior Year — one of the strongest and most motivated classes in recent M.H.S. history.

From this, we have drawn the theme of our yearbook, which we feel best represents the true nature of the Class of 1995. Although we may be a little rough around the edges, both our talent and diversity shine through when one looks "Beneath the Surface."

Under the shell of our undeserved reputation as trouble-makers lies the new generation: spirited, sophisticated, and determined. We have proven our worth both athletically and academically. Wait until you see the Class of '95! We are both Varsity athletes and Honor Roll students, aspiring musicians and talented artists. Our class has produced both League All-Stars and National Merit Scholars, inspiring leaders and dedicated volunteers. Our students have always been deeply involved in both school and community: we were the first to raise the issue of condom availability, and the first to establish a new Teen Health Center. Yet these accomplishments represent only the beginning of a promising future.

At last, the Class of 1995 has been recognized for what it really is. Our reputation has changed; people have looked beneath the surface. We are strong, motivated, and ready — we have grown up, and we're moving on. But before we leave, we'd like to express our deepest gratitude to Mr. Croston, and to wish the best of luck to the new principal, Mr. Hayes. Thank you . . . and Good Night!

ON THE SURFACE

Over the past four years we have collected many fond memories that will be cherished over a life time. This is our time to shine and to prove what we have accomplished over the past four years at MHS. We will always remember those most memorable experiences, whether they were with friends or family. Crazy parties or fun classes, these memories reflect on who we really are beneath the surface.

Seniors!

Throughout your years at MHS, you have experienced the challenge of striving for important goals. Having achieved a very important goal, it is time to take on new challenges. Whatever you choose, I encourage you to give your best and have fun, but not one without the other!

Thanks for the excellent example you have set for the classes to follow! Don't lose your spirit and remember that you will always be a part of the Red Raider family! Best wishes for much success and happiness!

D Hayes

After eighteen years of inspiring students both in and out of the classroom, Melrose High's Audrey Luongo will be retiring at the end of the '95 school year. To many, Mrs. Luongo was not only just a math teacher, but a sideline supporter of many Red Raider sports events as well. Mrs. Luongo's love of sports goes back to her youth, when she participated in swimming, basketball, and track. This love Luongo has provides a common ground between her and the students of Melrose High. Although she shares a closeness with her students, she is looking forward to retiring and becoming a grandmother. Mrs. Luongo will be greatly missed but will always have a special place in the hearts of Melrose students.

A LOOK WITHIN

Outside of the classroom, there are many events that bring the students of Melrose High School closer together. Classmates gather for the semi-formals, proms, and the Winter Ball to continue the annual Student Life traditions. On the wacky side are the Halloween Dance and Field Day. It is at these events where the students bond and create memories that sink in beneath the surface and will stay with them forever.

Junior Prom

While preparations for the Melrose High School Junior Prom are underway at Andover Rolling Green, the anxious juniors are at home preparing themselves for the night that lies ahead.

As the sun begins to fade, the eager couples gather with parents, family, and friends on their front lawns. After escaping an eternity of prodding parents with flashing cameras, the excited prom-goers climb into their limos with sighs of relief.

BEHIND THE SCENES

As we become so involved in our own efforts to succeed in high school, it is easy for us to overlook the efforts of the faculty who provided us with the support and guidance needed to help us do our best. The teachers and staff go above and beyond our expectations to provide the best education possible, which will be beneficial to us in our future endeavors. They arrive at school early to prepare for a full day of classes and stay long after the end of the school day, organizing clubs, writing recommendations, coaching teams, and giving students extra help with things they did not fully understand during class. Even after they leave the building, some teachers spend their time tutoring or attending courses to increase their knowledge in order to teach more effectively. The faculty of Melrose High is more than deserving of our appreciation, not only for the work they do during class, but for the work they also do . . . behind the scenes.

ABOVE THE COMPETITION

After the final bell of the day rings, many students rush home to escape the confines of school. But a select group of students can be seen practicing and playing on the fields of MHS. These are the athletes of Melrose High School; the students who reach within themselves to dedicate their extra time and energy to represent Melrose Athletics. And this dedication has given MHS and its athletes the ability to rise Above The Competition.

Talk About Togetherness

Captains Susan Thibeault ('94) and Becky Hale ('94).

"Does this guy ever shut up? wonders Wendy Schreiber as she and Susan MacLeod pretend to list to Coach Porter. Both Wendy and Sue were All-Stars and Wendy will captain this year's team.

Hurdling her way through the competition, Lauren O'Malley looks confident in winning her event. While only a sophomore, Lauren was a big point-winner for the team this past season.

a crucial race against Belmont, Tricia Cox lls ahead of her opponents and looks toward ctory. Tricia will be looked upon by her team- ates this season for senior leadership.

Leaping to another victory is Emily Ferrick. She was a major asset to the team and one of this year's Tri-Captains.

Although the record may not prove it, the Melrose Raiders had a very productive season, especially in the field of record times and personal improvement. They had a determined team with a lot of potential.

All-Stars Sue MacLeod, Wendy Schreiber, and Co-Captain Becky Hale ('94) were extraordinary assets to the team. In the two-mile, Sue really proved her ability with a time of 11:58, and in the one-mile, Wendy ran a record time of 5:24. All of the seniors made major contributions and helped the team get started off on the right track.

The toughest loss of the season had to be the home meet against Belmont, when the team lost by only one half of a point. That was truly the highlight of the season. The most memorable event, on the other hand, might have been the pasta party at Becky's house! Then again, it will be hard to forget the time when Wendy threw a discus through a car windshield, or the time when Lauren O'Malley fell off the mats after doing the high jump. Although the season may not have been as successful as one might have hoped, it was certainly a memorable one!

The one word that best characterized the attitude of the Girl's Spring Track Team was perserverence. Although they finished with a record of 0-9, they always gave 100%.

"We have lots of spirit and we work really hard; eventually the wins will come."

Wendy Schreiber

Raising his arms because he's "Sure" he's go to win the long jump, Anthony Riccardi explo off the block. Anthony was a great jumper an massive strength to the team.

"We work hard every year, and next year we will beat Reading."

Jeff Iudice

Ending the exhausting season with a record of 4-5, the up-and-coming Boys Track Team was very satisfied with the outcome of their efforts. The team was coached by the disciplinarian, Tim Morris, and assisted by Cliff Somerville. Along with the coaches, the team was led by tri-captains Mike Shay ('94), Greg Huntley ('94), and Dustin Reid ('94). The team worked hard in the pre-season and was determined to do their best.

The team's goal for the season, to beat the powerhouse Reading squad, was not accomplished. The Raiders took the Rockets all the way to the final relay and almost broke their twenty-two year winning streak. Out of all their victories, their hardest fought battle was beating Winchester. The Sachems were a strong team with a lot of depth, but they could not defeat the talented Red Raiders, who were bolstered by the performance of the team's pole vaulters.

Next year, the more experienced team will be led by co-captains Marc Young and Jim O'Malley. Their prospect for the upcoming season is having a good record with their young and talented team. The Red Raiders will look forward to being stronger in the weight events and distance competitions.

Deeply involved in an enthralling conversation with Andrea MacNamara, Johanna Tighe tries unsuccessfully to remember where she is.

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's the ball I just hit!" hinks Jennie Connery as her ball soars over the et. She proved to be a great player this season, nd her senior leadership helped the team.

"This ball is here again?" thinks Johanna Tighe as she prepares to send it sailing over the net. Johanna played a great season in the number three single spot and will lead the 1995 squad as captain.

The Lady Raiders successfully fulfilled their goal of playing as a good team under their new coach, Julie Briggs. Captains Allyson Casey ('94) and Melissa Roselli ('94) led their team to a rewarding season.

There were many major contributors to the team as well as the captains. Tara Cargill, Johanna Tighe, Andrea Brown, and Suzie Crowley also helped to lead the team to many victories. Freshman Andrea MacNamara was an excellent player, and she shows extreme potential towards the years to come.

Laura Chiminello was a First Team Middlesex League All-Star and was number one in the League. She also made it to the Quarterfinals in the State as well as being a Herald All-Scholastic, and receiving the title of MVP as only a Freshman.

There were several hard fought victories such as the great match against Reading, and also the games against Lexington and Stoneham. Memorable events of the season include the van rides home, especially from Belmont, and the pool party at Melissa Roselli's house.

The season could be characterized as unique or even crazy, and the cooperative team members pulled together and ended the season with a 6-7 record.

"Although we had a few setbacks, our spirit and pride got us through another tough season."

Skill and coordination are two major factors necessary to succeed in tennis. Team coherence is also an essential factor which determines a "solid" tennis team and the Melrose boy's tennis team has this quality year after year.

The team's togetherness shined through after a tough loss to Belmont. Not set back by the loss, the Raiders pulled themselves together and defeated a potent Winchester team thanks to great playing by Captain Nick Alfano ('94) Brian Carroll, Jason Mitchell and Dan Casey. The team always had a good time wherever they were; whether at practice, a game or, what was called the highlight of the season according to Jason Mitchell, Coach Peter Lund's barbecue.

This year the team has a few upcoming prospects which should help the Raiders break into the top half of the Middlesex League. These prospects include Junior Joshua Kepnes whose hard work during the off-season should land him into one of the top seeds, Sophomore Matt Roselli, and Sophomore Dan Casey who looks like he has the potential to be one of the best tennis players to come from Melrose in a while.

This team has always been noted for its spirit, and soon enough they will be together again on the courts having a great time as usual.

Preparing for the bunt, Amy Dolan squares herself as the Stoneham coach looks on in awe. Amy was this year's junior captain.

With her keen eye, Jill Grabiec ups her count by taking this low ball. Jill was a huge strength to the offense with her power hitting and great eye.

The talented, yet inexperienced Melrose softball team, coached by Don MacLeod and assisted by Mike Crawford, had a tough act to follow, starting off the season in the wake of the 1993 team's great success. Leading the Red Raiders were Co-Captains Rene Federico ('94) and Amy Dolan.

While Melrose set out to have a winning season and make the state tournament, their goal proved unreachable, as competition in the Middlesex League is the toughest in the state. The team did, however, improve their record (6-14), and won a hard fought victory against the tough Winchester team. The Raiders held the Sachems down to one run, and then late in the fifth inning they began an incredible rally, scoring nine runs to secure the win. Their most memorable victory, on the other hand, was against Malden, beating them 19-2. This was a non-league game, but it increased the team's chances for making the state tournament.

Last year's All-Star was the returning novice Heidi Stevenson, receiving this award for the second time. She was used as a utility player in the shortstop position.

Next year's captains are Amy Dolan and Susan Downey. They are both looking forward to having a strong season with a more experienced team. They also expect to have a winning record and to qualify for the tournament.

Head Coach Dave Wilbur and the Melrose Varsity Baseball Team suffered a disappointing 1994 season. Anthony Sestito and Brian Fogarty led the team to a lackluster 7-13 record. Despite the dismal record, the Red Raiders were awarded three All-Stars. They were pitchers David Blanchard, Brian Fogarty and 1st baseman Anthony Sestito.

The team's season was summed up in one particular game against rival Wakefield. Melrose had the lead throughout most of the game, but in the last two innings Melrose "choked" and watched their lead and the game slip through their hands.

However, Melrose had some bright spots during the season. In Burlington the team had the lead early, lost it, but never gave up and came through with a big "W." Personal highlights throughout the year include a grand-slam by All-Star Tony Sestito ('94) and a no-hitter by All-Star Brian Fogarty ('94).

"The goal for the team this upcoming season is to improve on last year's record of 7-13," says Jon Troy who, along with Alex Serfes and Jeff Rzepka will help the Red Raiders fulfill this goal. Next year's tri captains, David Blanchard, Steven Healey and Mike Chaffee, will lead Melrose, hopefully, to the top half of the league.

Demonstrating her classic backstroke, Megan Sierak glides through the water with ease, while also daydreaming about the day's events. Megan continued to prove her skill this season, and helped the team immensely.

Captain Sarah Sutherland stops to take a breath while showing off her perfect stroke. Her leadership and commitment to the team greatly helped the Raiders this year.

The goal for the season was to pull together as a team and to attain personal best times. With ard work, combined with the leadership of Captain Sarah Sutherland, the girls' swim team cer- ainly achieved what they had so eagerly pursued. The team ended the season with a 4-6 record.

Many other outstanding swimmers also helped to lead the team to success; among them, Mack- nzie Silverio, Megan Sierak, Rachel Frederick, Erica Farrell, Julie Abare, and Allison Carey. Al- nough no awards or special recognition were given to anyone, Mackenzie Silverio would have been League All-Star for her third consecutive year if the requirements had not been changed.

The greatest win of the season was the meet against Woburn. Everyone knew that the match ould be close because of the strengths of both teams, but the Lady Raiders got the victory that ney so deserved. There were, however, several tough losses as well, especially those to Burlington nd Billerica.

The season contained many memorable events for the swimmers, such as the bus ride to Lexing- on and the pasta parties (especially those attended by Andrea McNamara). The strong under- assman contingent should lead next year's team to another productive season.

The 1994 season was yet another successful season for the Melrose Red Raiders golf team. The Red Raiders finished their season with an impressive 7-2 record which was good enough for third place in the extremely competitive Middlesex League. This magnificent record also landed them a spot in the State Golf Tourney.

Led by Captain Steven Healey and Senior Tim Talbot, who played most of the season at the number one position, the squad demolished their opponents in seven wins, outscoring them 66-18. After a disappointing loss to Winchester, the Red Raiders regained control, closing out the season with three consecutive wins.

The team worked very well together and everyone did their part, especially the brother-duo of Bill and James Donohue, as well as long-time Veterans Brian Carroll and Josh Riley.

Next year the Melrose Red Raiders will once again be competing for the League Championship. They will be led by hot prospects James Donohue, Bob Sweezey, and youngster Chris Young. With luck, the 1995 golf team will continue its outstanding record of success.

Giving the Spartans a run for their money, Melissa Sherman takes the lead. As a captain, Melissa proved to be not only a strong leader, but a strong competitor as well.

With three powerful captains and a team with strong ambitions, the Melrose Cross Country team came very close to accomplishing their goal of winning half of their meets. Captains Tricia Cox, Susan MacLeod, and Melissa Sherman strongly led their team to a 4-5 record with the help of Coach Kevin Allison and key runners Pam Costello, Tracy Crowley, and Senior Amanda Crowley, who, in her first year of Cross-Country, helped the team tremendously.

Though the team started the season with a tough loss to Belmont, their constant improvement really showed. One of the greatest wins of the season came at the meet against Winchester, when Amanda Crowley out-sprinted a rival for the victory. Their determination certainly paid off for the final meet of the season, when the Lady Raiders took the victory at their home meet against Wakefield.

Next year will be a season of rebuilding, as the team will be losing a number of valuable seniors. However, the strong underclassmen will surely prove themselves through another great season. Excellent freshman, Margaret McKinley, will be a great help in this process.

There is no one in sight and hopefully Kevi Quinn is ahead of the rest. As one of the captair of the team, Kevin showed great leadership.

"Be the man!"

Mike Redman

The team finished the season well with a 4-5 record. They were led by Senior Captains Jim O'Malley, David Appleyard and Kevin Quinn. Junior Mike Coughlin proved to be a key new addition. O'Malley and Coughlin provided a solid 1-2 combination, with Senior Mike Gilbert, Sophomore Conor MacGuire, and Freshman George Dakin completing the team's top five. In addition, Jim O'Malley earned All-Star honors for the second year in a row.

For ten straight years Melrose had always come up a little bit short against an extremely tough Lexington team. However, with the 1994 season came the end of this troubling record, for the Raiders defeated pesky Lexington thanks to brilliant running from everyone on the team. With the return of Coughlin, MacGuire and Dakin, as well as Tom Walsh, Mike Redmond and Chris Sinclair, the '95 team should prove to be strong contenders in the Middlesex League, and, with luck, will perhaps once again beat Lexington.

Ready to make another pass, Katie Sugrue has her game completely under control. Katie has made an excellent captain this year, and has perfected her position as forward.

Both on and off the field, spirit dominated over the Lady Raiders this season. Whether it was taking time out of the Pep Rally to do the Bugaloo or screaming the cheers on the bus using Wendy Schreiber's megaphone, they always seized the opportunity to express the pride they had in their team. A lot of hard work was put into the season, but fun was still had by all.

The season would never have been what it was without the strong leadership of the Captains: Eastern MA All-Star, Wendy Schreiber, Katie Sugrue, and League All-Star, Jill Thibeault. Other major contributors included Cara Hubbard, Gia Rosenberg, and freshman goalie, Beth Messenger. Beth became a major asset to the team and proved what an incredible player she is.

Every game was fought hard by the Lady Raiders. Their efforts especially paid off at the Burlington game when the team won 2-1. The Raiders showed their stuff again later in the season when they came back to tie Burlington 3-3.

Next year's team will be a very strong, determined group, despite the loss of eight valuable seniors. The prospects for this future team are still very positive and are ready for another spirited season.

Captain Steve Herlihy proves that he can rap to his favorite tune and show perfect form booting the ball at the same time. Steve also proved this season that he can be a great captain and an excellent player at the same time.

Fighting off his tough opposition, Eric Holmes still shows that he remains one step ahead of the rest. Eric was a good all-around player and he mastered many positions this season.

"Unforgettable!"

Rich Rossi

This team's record did not in any way represent the skills that they possessed or how hard they worked. The team was full of talented players who gave their all in the highly competitive Middlesex League. The season was characterized as a learning experience and each player made constant improvement.

Captains Steve Herlihy, Tony Scibilia, and Peter Veneziano led their team well and were major contributors to the Raiders. Other great assets to the team included Jim Dooher, Matt Laspina, Eric Holmes, and Shane Shaffer. In addition to being a League All-Star, Captain Tony Scibilia was named MVP. Rich Rossi was the recipient of the Most Improved Player Award, and Jim Dooher earned himself the Coach's Award. The highly honorable J. Michael Hughes Award was given to Steve Herlihy.

The toughest contest for the team this season was the match against Reading. It was extremely close throughout the entire game, but Reading came away with the win. The highlight of the season had to be the home night game against Watertown which ended in a tie.

Next season has much better prospects, although the loss of eight valuable seniors will be hard to overcome. Luckily, there will be a strong underclassman contingent.

After a grueling season in a tough league, the Melrose Red Raiders came up with a record of 6-7-5. The field hockey team was coached by Jan Johnston and assisted by Robin Savage for the first year. Leading the team were the determined, and enthusiastic co-captains Heidi Stevenson and Amy Dolan.

Although the team missed qualifying for the state tournament by a mere point, they were satisfied with their teamwork, determination and effort throughout the season. The Raiders succeeded in beating their rival, Wakefield, both times they went head-to-head. Both of those hard fought wins were shut-outs with a score of 2-0 each time. On both occasions the Melrose defense shined with perfection, while the offense was able to score with ease.

Out of the whole season, Melrose's biggest improvement was holding Watertown down to only 3 goals, compared to 8 when they first played them. The Raiders held Watertown with no score all the way to the half. It had to be the closest and most intense game of the season.

The All-Stars chosen to represent Melrose were Heidi Stevenson and Jessica Herrington. They were both model team players and will be missed next year.

Coach Tim Morris was always there to listen to anyo who had something to say, especially his Senior Capta Adam Federico. Throughout the season Coach Moe w the brains on the sidelines and Adam was the brains the field.

"Yeah baby, yeah."

Dan Greeley

The team started off the season on a high note by beating their non-league rival, Malden, 8-6. This level of play continued throughout most of the year. The Red Raiders won their next two games against Belmont and Burlington. However, twelfth ranked powerhouse Woburn awaited them. Not many people gave Melrose a chance to win this game, but sure enough, they shut out the "mighty" Woburn team 10-0. The following week, Melrose suffered a huge let down, for they lost a game at Reading they could have easily won. Melrose bounced back nicely from the defeat and won three games in a row against Stoneham, Winchester, and Lexington, matching their longest winning streak of the year. Now all Melrose had to do was win one of their two remaining games. On a very cold Friday night, a far superior Melrose team was stunned by the Watertown Red Raiders. Fortunately, Melrose still had one chance left. But on Thanksgiving Day, Wakefield's ambition to prevent Melrose from reaching the Super Bowl proved far greater than Melrose's Super Bowl dreams.

Although the season ended with a feeling of emptiness for the Red Raiders, this team must be credited with what Senior Captain Adam Federico calls a "never give up" attitude.

During one of the time-outs, D1 gives her team some valuable words of wisdom.

ıe expression on her face, you can tell that McCarthy used all of her power to send erve over the net. In a crucial game against :ham, "laid-back" Katie should her first of nervousness.

Trying to keep herself concussion-free, Christina Cirrone lifts her head off the floor to follow the ball she has just saved. As the team's setter, Christina led the team by controlling the offense.

Coached by Donna Marinelli and assisted by Peter Marinelli, the Melrose Volleyball team finhed a very inconsistent season with a 6-11 record. Despite their record, every game for the Raidrs was a tough battle that ended up with either cries of joy or tears of defeat.

Determined to make their record stronger, the Red Raiders dominated their last two games, ·ushing Everett 2-0 and stunning Hamilton Wenham 2-1. The victory over Hamilton Wenham as by far the biggest and best win of the season. Melrose kept up with the Generals through the rst two games, and then pulled ahead in the third to clinch the match with their heads-up, intense aying.

Tri-Captains Lindsay Randall, Christina Cirrone, and Caroline Cassavoy faced a tough season, ying to match last year's outstanding record of 15-3. Unfortunately, their hopes of making the ate tournament for the third year in a row proved impossible. The Raiders did, however, display eat individual performance, producing All-Stars Cassavoy and Cirrone. Christina also made the ll-League Team.

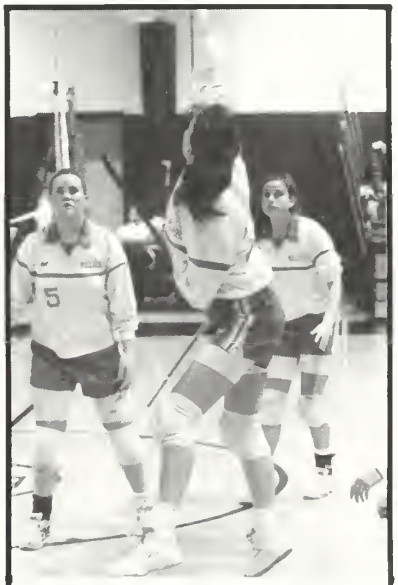
Next year's team promises great potential, and although the 1995 Raiders will miss their senior ›minance, they will undoubtedly succeed with the spirit and drive of such young talent.



"All of our games were really close, but we just didn't have what it takes to win."

"Who said we're not gonna win tonight?"

Therfena Green

Whatever the conditions were the Melrose football cheerleaders would always be there with winning smiles on their faces. They were led by Captain Christine Catanzaro and Captain Molly Linnehan throughout the entire season for the second year in a row. The squad practiced their cheers and dances to perfection, and with such dedication, they went on to win the Most Spirited Award.

Showing off their spirit, the team would strive to fire up the massive crowds and were an inspiration to the football team throughout tough games. They helped the players reach an outstanding record of 7-3, which led them to reach the rank of #2 in the entire Middlesex League.

Favorite memories include:

Planning his attack, Jeff Iudice anxiously awai the moves from his Belmont opponent. Jeff le the team in the 160 pound category.

"We have a lot of young talent and it looks like we have a bright future."

Nathan Lusas

The young and inexperienced Melrose wrestlers were led by Captain Jeff Iudice, Coach Frank Smith, and Assistant Coach Jon Puleo. Their record was 1-5-1 in the brutal Middlesex League and 3-6-1 overall. This record is very misleading because the team was very talented as a whole.

Throughout the Middlesex League, Melrose has very strong and demanding competition to face. The Red Raiders' rival in the league was Wakefield. After a tough and hard fought match against them, the Raiders looked as if they were in the lead by one. Anticipating a well-deserved win, Melrose unfortunately fell short and only came away with a tie. The team was very disappointed that they did not come out on top, but was also relieved that they were not defeated by their long term rivals.

With only two seniors on the team, Anthony Samuels and Shannon Blair, Melrose consisted of mostly inexperienced underclassmen. The team was very talented, however, and had strong competitors in every weight category. Next year, the Red Raiders will be more experienced and determined to dominate the league.

Showing off her pride and poise is Leigha Zedros. Leigha is well known for her ability in all of the events, which she constantly displays.

n Lackett smiles shyly as she lets her finger-ils dry. Jen helped the team a lot this season, pecially on the vault.

"Look Mom, I can fly!" thinks Jen Basteri. Jen led the team very well this season as only a Junior and made constant self-improvement.

Though it may not be proven by their record, the Lady Raiders, under a new coach and captain, had a very productive season. Coach Earl McCallister and Captain Jen Basteri both did excellent jobs leading such a talented group of gymnasts. However, they could not have done it alone. Juniors Rachel Downey, Sara Strangi, Leigha Zedros, and the rest of the Lady Raiders each contributed to their season.

Their season ended in a 1:4 record. The win was against their rivals, the Stoneham Spartans, who they had not defeated in two years. Each of the athletes' performances at that meet truly paid off in representing the team's talent. This win to Stoneham proved to be the highlight of their season.

The prospects for next year's team look good. They anticipate a great season, as they will gain several valuable freshmen. As for this season, the Ladies would like to remember it as "a satchel of fun right from the get-go."

"It was a fun and exciting season."

Demonstrating his perfect form is Chris Kroon. Chris led the team well this season and also established great times for himself, like his impressive 5:30 in the 500 freestyle.

After several years on the Swim Team, Mike Burke learned to master the art of putting on goggles. Mike one of the powerful swimmers who will be looked up to help the team enormously next year.

"We were a young team who had many surprises, but we surpassed our expectations.

Henry Turner"

Placing third in the League, the Boys Swim Team ended their season with a strong 4:3 record. The team was led by outstanding captains, Chris Kroon and Jason Shamberger, and contained many other powerhouses such as Henry Turner, Mark Goodhue, Keith Rowe, and extraordinary freshmen, Dan Kourtz and Andrew Schweiz.

The meet against Malden Catholic was definitely the most hard fought victory. It came down to the final relay, where the Raiders pulled ahead for the win. However, there were a couple of tough losses including the loss to Reading and to Lexington.

The swim team had only one home meet, which turned out to be the highlight of the season. The overwhelming MHS turnout at this important meet showed just how much pride the students have in this team. Jason Helein's placing second in the 100 backstroke was the most memorable event of the season, and it really proved Jason's talent. The many trips to Purity to obtain the supplies for the many toilet paperings also will not easily be forgotten.

Although there will be a loss of valuable seniors, the team is preparing for an even stronger season next year. Mike Burke, Joe Elia, and upcoming Freshman Andrew Rawson will be great helps in this process.

Bizarre hats, Benson's false starts, 90210 parties at Gilbert's, laps in the Middle School inferno, "Son of a Preacher Man," lunatic bus drivers, and tattoos are just some of the memories that this year's Winter Track team took with them. Once again they bundled up and braved the cold in their hottest season yet. Highlights include the Girls Team's first win ever and the Boys Team's best record in four years.

Reflecting this milestone for the Girls team were outstanding performances by Seniors Susan MacLeod, Wendy Schreiber, Heather Goodwin, and Emily Ferrick. Many of these individuals consistently placed first in their events, and the relay team had many victories. Wendy and Sue, along with Maura Pelham and Melissa Cunningham, went on to compete in the State Meet.

The Boys team also had many great individual performances by Seniors Jim O'Malley, Kevin Mason, Dave Appleyard, and Anthony Riccardi. Some highlights of their season were beating Belmont in the relay and sweeping Burlington in the hurdles. Jim O'Malley, Kevin Mason, and Damon Isles went on to compete in the State Meet.

The Winter Track team owed much of its success to its coaches, Mr. Porter and "The Irish Stride of Pride" Sinead Delahunty. Through their dedication to the program, they pushed this team to become the best and brightest Winter Track Team that Melrose High School has ever had.

Elevens are wild as Matt Holman tries to prevent a Marauder from passing him. Matt played an important role for the Red Raiders this year as a team leader.

The resilient Dave Ciulla appears as if he ha the ice and bounced back up one too many t in this game. Although only a Junior, Dave a one of the better players on this team.

"Our record didn't indicate our effort."

Jonathan Troy

Despite a disappointing 1993-94 season, the Melrose Hockey Team was optimistic about makin the Middlesex Tournament mainly because of returning All-Stars David Blanchard and Dav Ciulla. However, Melrose's hard work and determination proved fruitless and once again th failed to qualify for the tournament.

The team was led in scoring by Seniors Andrew LaFauci and Matt Holman. The top defensiv player for the second straight year was David Blanchard. Captain Peter Mackinnon was a gre team leader, inspiring all of his teammates before and after the game no matter whether they w or lost.

A lot of credit should be given to this Melrose team especially after Coach Rolli's gruelin schedule of drills, exercises, and scrimmages, all of which put the team in great shape.

The Red Raiders' most impressive win of the season was a game played in Stoneham Aren against Lexington. The formidable team was baffled by outstanding team play from the Red Raid ers. Lexington left the game in a state of disarray and as they skated off the ice the scoreboar read, Melrose 7, Lexington 2. On the other hand, Melrose's most disappointing loss of the seaso came against Stoneham. Melrose lost the game 6-5 with only 20 seconds remaining.

Leaping far above her Belmont opponent, Kerri Jenkins looks like a relative of Michael Jordan. Kerri was a tremendous contributor to the Lady Raiders team, playing as center.

'm open, I'm open!" exclaims sophomore Lau- ı Doherty. Lauren has been a major part of the ım with her great shooting ability and tena- ɔus defense.

Using her impressive left-hand skills, Gina Luciano blows by her pesty Belmont defender. Gina was counted on this year for her great ball handling and will be missed immensely next year.

The Melrose Girl's Basketball Team was led by Tri-Captains Kerri Jenkins, Lindsay Randall, and Gina Luciano. The young team was guided by Head Coach Matt Gianatassio and Assistant Coaches Julia Damon and newcomer Marc Pedi.

With only five returning Varsity players, of whom four were seniors, the Lady Raiders prospects were not so good. The team was young with minimal expectations, and had not played much together before the season had started. The inexperienced team worked hard to pull themselves together for their first game.

In every game, Melrose played with heart and soul, not to mention aggressiveness and determination. Each game was close, but at the buzzer it seemed the odds were always against Melrose. Falling short of making the state tournament, the Melrose Red Raiders still play with their heads up and hope to improve their record.

"Brought the house down!

Jim Bakeman"

Once again the Melrose Boy's Varsity Basketball Team had a successful 1994-95 season behind disciplined coaching from Nick Papas, placing them in the Middlesex League Tournament for the 13th year in a row. Co-Captain Jeff Curran who was coming off a very impressive Junior season, had an even better Senior season, leading the team in scoring, rebounding, and blocked shots. Whenever Jeff received the ball down low, he would make his defenders look pathetic; weaving in and around them and then banking a shot off the glass-a shot that only he could have made. But winning takes strong defensive play as well. Marc Young, who was also a captain, played relentless defense throughout the year thanks to his unbelievably quick feet and hands. Young's agility is the reason why he led the team in steals for the second year in a row. Coach Nick Papas had to have been pleased with the play of his first year Junior starters, Zack Brown and Alton Powell. Another important aspect which determines a strong team is the play of the bench. Seniors Adam Federico, Mike Chaffee, and Jim Bakeman provided strong bench support all year. Perhaps the most important thing which made the team so successful was the play of the "Green Team."

Captain Jill Hitchman"

This season's Hockey Cheerleading squad was one of the best yet. The team was led by both Captain Jill Hitchman and Coach Skaare. The girls were always supportive of the boys, even when things were not going well. Each cheerleader wore a shirt that belonged to one of the boys on the team, proving that they indeed had a lot of spirit. As always, the players greatly appreciated the girls' support and without it, the team may not have made it. Many thanks to Mrs. Skaare, and good luck to all the seniors.

This year's Basketball Cheerleading squad is definitely one to remember. The girls, captained by Johanna Tighe and Alison Weekley, were a dynamic stunt team and their new uniforms were a hit. The boys were an exciting team to cheer for, and the girls were behind them all the way. Many memories were made and the girls will always remember: exhibition practices, Therfena's early arrivals, Melissa'a awesome basket toss, Alison's chairs, Johanna's notebook, the roudy Stoneham game, fun talks at Lexington, Lauren's success at the MHS cheer, Miss Liberty Daley, and our favorite fan: Tight Pants G.

UNDER IT ALL

From the recycling program of the Environmental Club to the celestial sounds of the orchestra, Melrose High School's diverse clubs and organizations allow students to get involved with school and community. On any given day after classes, one can find the Student Government planning the next event, the Drama Club rehearsing for their next performance, or S.A.D.D. fighting the battle against drunk driving. The clubs and organizations of Melrose High are a key element in the development of students' lives.

Senior Student Government

The Senior Student Government has the responsibility of organizing senior events such as the Halloween Dance, Winterball, and the Prom. It holds fundraisers to help defray the costs of the activities, and it participates in the Bloodmobile, reading to elementary school children, and the permanent scholarship fund. The senior government helps make M.H.S. run smoothly.

The German American Partnership Program (GAPP) is a foreign exchange program between the students of Melrose High School and the students of Gymnasium Oberalster in Hamburg, Germany. In April of 1994, twenty GAPP'ers, accompanied by the unforgettable Dr. Dragonas, left Boston on a fine spring evening, bound for a one month stay in Deutschland.

While experiencing German culture first-hand, the students attended school, went on field trips, and perfected the language(!). Many a night was spent studying foreign social behavior in the educational Meccas of the Pflaumenbaum and the Dabkrug (and let's not forget the AEZ mall, where the Amis enjoyed bootleg music store German fashion, and of cours Spaghetti Ice Cream).

Although many students found hard to get over the excitement the VW factory and the bean war house, most everyone still foun time to enjoy a peaceful bike ric in the Alstertal or a quiet nap o the GOA lawn. Everyone mad good friends and fond memorie and so we'll leave you with a fe "Begok! Ich bin Frau Fran . . . "WO!"; "The guys met God! "This is going to be the three da from Hell, you know!"; "ya-d ya-da ya-da, Der Amazing Drew "Gee, I hope Sean doesn't croak and finally . . . "Phyllis — ju CHILL!!!"

The Student Activities Financial Board is a unique organization which empowers its members with the authority to allocate thousands of dollars in funds. This program has been self-sufficient since 1974 and helps support the numerous extracurricular activities at M.H.S. The board meets in the beginning of the school year to give seed money to each club. It also "loans" clubs money for initial expenses, with the clubs profits eventually returning to the fund

Project Bread is one of the largest organizations in the school. They help supply meals to homeless shelters and help provide food pantries with food during the holidays. Under the supervision of the club advisor, Mrs. Katz, this club runs the Holiday Raffle, Candy Cane Sale, and a Bake Sale. There are also committees that are in charge of decorating the halls and windows of the Resource Center with posters. Project Bread's main goal throughout the year is to make a difference in the lives of people who are less fortunate during holidays.

DRAMA CLUB

The Melrose High School Drama Club works hard each year to present shows for the school and community. This year's talented ensemble of actors and technical crew put together three delightful performances—David and Lisa, The Grass Harp, and the annual "spring show," featuring a variety of skits and monologues.

In addition to presenting their work for the community of Melrose, the drama club competed with other high schools at the annual festival sponsored by the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild with their production of The Grass Harp by Truman Capote. The M.H.S. Drama Club has consistently done well at these competitions, and has returned home with awards in both acting and set design.

The Community Service Club was founded by two members of this year's senior class, and they began by trying to give something back to both the school and local communities. The Club has completed many worthwhile activities. These include visiting local nursing homes to spend time with patients, volunteering at the YMCA's after school program and painting the Green St. Geriatric Center. This Club is off to a great start and hopes to be able to add even more activities to those it already has.

The National Honor Society, with the aid of its advisor, Mr. Melvin, tries to give back to M.H.S. by striving toward the ideals of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The N.H.S. works in conjunction with Project Bread at Christmastime and members offer their time and knowledge as tutors year-round to fulfill the service requirements. This year, the active members of the N.H.S. number fifty-eight, which is just one indication of the outstanding nature of the Class of 1995.

The induction ceremony held in the spring is the highlight of the year. Old members pass on the ideals of the N.H.S. to new members during a candlelight service.

The Multicultural Club was established to promote differences and to raise awareness of different cultures in our high school and in the community of Melrose. It sets up a variety of activities, which include guest speakers and movies. This year, a World of Difference Day is planned which tries to involve the entire community.

RISING TO THE SURFACE

Underclassmen always look up to the seniors and cannot wait to accept their place someday. They patiently await their turn to rise above the surface and fulfill their dreams of graduating. On their journey to graduation day, underclassmen have not only the opportunity to participate in various activities including clubs, sports, and dances, but also the chance to lead their own social life. Underclassmen mature and develop into adults while exploring the pleasures of being young. Eventually the day will come when they are seniors and can rise above the surface.

Beneath the Surface of photographs and profiles lies the Business section of LOG '95. The business and student ads established a strong base for the '95 yearbook staff to build on. From this base a yearbook filled with memories was produced and it will be treasured by all who own it. The Business Staff would like to thank all the seniors who cooperated in posing for their ad pictures. In addition, the local merchants should be commended for their charity in the purchase of business ads. Thus, because of the tremendous support of both students and businesses, LOG '95 is not Behind the Buck.

JAMNESTY II

Jamnesty is a concert in which interested musicians from M.H.S. come together to play for the student body. The concert is sponsored by Amnesty International and all money raised is donated to the organization. Mike Taggart and Dougie were in charge of this year's Jamnesty concert, with the help of Laura Shimberg in ticket sales. The name of the Jamnesty band was Beth's Cookies, and was composed of individual members from such bands as Cola, Frankish, and Webster's Pudding. The talented musicians involved in Jamnesty II were: Mike Taggart, Brendan Kenty, Dougie, Shaun Morphew, John Beck, Beth Cerasuolo, Sasha Veneziano, Jim Shanahan, Joe Elia, John Healey, Pat Heflar, Greg Ferreira, Shawn Gillis, Jeff Gordon, Bill Ricciardelli, Dave Hackett, Paul Butler, James Dooher, Sam Calef and Brendan Ahern. The special guests at the concert included Gary Taggart and Nathan Sullivan. Dave Appleyard, Patrick Burke, and Matt Laspina also helped out with photography and video. The crowd couldn't get enough of the great music and the band performed such songs as: "Stop" by Jane's Addiction, "Release" by Pearl Jam, "People Are Strange Not to Touch the Earth" by The Doors, "In the Meantime" by Helmet, and "When I Come Around" by Green Day. The concert was a real success and we wish the best of luck to all the musicians in the upcoming future.

Hard core in the flesh, with "In the Meantime."

Sammy, B.O.A., and Jim D. fight for their right to party.

The Jamnesty band reunites for one last time.

Brendan gets physical.

Brendan Kenty and Joe Elia back up John Beck as he does his best Billy Joe impersonation.

1. Taking a swing at yearbook are Nick and Joey DiSanto. 2. Being on top is no problem for computer and copy editors Jennie Connery and Chris Molina, with the help of their staff Mike Iapini, Liz Larcano, and JoAnna Dittmer. 3. Obeying the orders of Chiefs Cargill and Dolan are the poor little red raider indians Johanna Tighe, Mary Kate Mastrangelo, and Lisa Tulipani. 5. Alexis Vagianos, Wendy Schreiber, Becky Lindley, Adam Federico, and Karima Khawaja form a pyramid of business expertise. 6. Just chillin' is the student life editor Stephanie Milano with her staff Jodi Dakin and Emily Chin. 8. Laying it all on the line is sports editor Christina Cirrone with her staff Liz Beshong, Gabe Gillis, and Beth Stiller. 7. Katie Bleiler and Mr. DiSanto smile in relief of finishing a fun but hectic year. 4. 1995 Log Editors

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

U.S. President Bill Clinton, right, and British Prime Minister John Major take part in ceremonies in June 1994 at a military cemetery during the 50th anniversary commemoration of the Allied D-Day invasion of Europe, the event that sealed the fate of Nazi Germany during World War II.

India suffers an outbreak of pneumonic plague, carried by flea-infested vermin. Workers in Bombay earn five rupees for each exterminated rat; one thousand rat-tails earns a color TV.

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

A triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

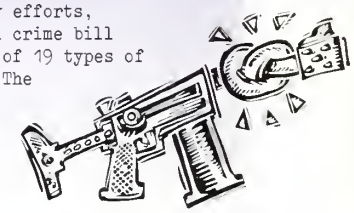
The prosecution seeks the death penalty in the case of Susan Smith, who dupes the nation with a frightening tale of the abduction of her two little boys. The community's early support grows quickly to hatred when Smith confesses to murder—she sent her children to their deaths at the bottom of a lake.

Called the Republican revolution, November mid-term elections put the Republican party and its anti-big government platform in control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. Georgia's Newt Gingrich, author of the GOP's "Contract with America," is the new Speaker of the House.

The volunteers for Silent March bring shoes from every state for one of the quietest demonstrations to ever take place in Washington, D.C. Each empty pair of shoes represents one of the more than 40,000 Americans who have been killed by handguns.

Despite powerful National Rifle Association lobby efforts, Congress passes a crime bill banning the sale of 19 types of assault weapons. The Brady Law goes into effect; in one month 23,610 people with criminal records are denied the purchase of a handgun.



Heat, drought, and lightning combine to set Western states ablaze in late June and July. Fires consume 2,000 acres in Colorado's South Canyon when 50 mile-an-hour winds whip the flames into a firestorm, killing 14 specially trained firefighters: 10 men and four women.

The 37th U.S. President, Richard Nixon, dies in April 1994. Nixon was responsible for restoring normal ties with the People's Republic of China following the signing of the Shanghai Communique in 1972.

Rick Phillips, The Janesville Gazette

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

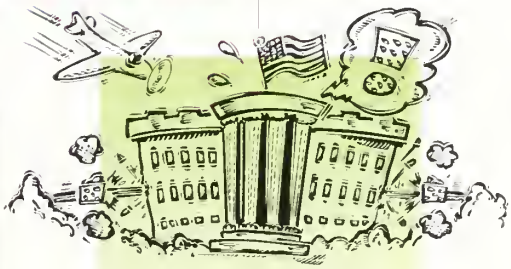
President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

Tod Bigelow, Black Star

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.



The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

The U.S. Interior Department moves the bald eagle from its endangered species list to the less critical "threatened" category. The Pacific Northwest's spotted owl is left to fend for itself when in June a federal judge lifts the 1991 injunction that halted logging in the owl's habitat.

The fossil of a previously unknown dinosaur, the 25-foot-long Cryolophosaurus ellioti, is found in Antarctica.

Despite a so-called fitness craze the National Center for Health Statistics confirms the American overabundance of food combined with a sedentary lifestyle is creating an epidemic of obesity. Since 1980, the number of overweight adults has ballooned to one-third of the population, with an alarming increase among children.

Some of the 599 newly revealed secret ingredients major cigarette-makers add to improve taste and texture: beeswax, butter, carrot oil, citronella oil, cocoa shells, corn silk, dandelion root extract, 31 chemicals that start with ethyl, oak chip oil, vinegar, and dimethyltetrahydrobenzofuranone.

Three planets are discovered orbiting a pulsar star 3,000 light-years away in the constellation Virgo. One is the size of the moon and two are three times more massive than Earth; all are rocky worlds without an atmosphere.

NASA's space shuttle mission 64 tests the operations of a Simplified Aid For Extravehicular Activity Rescue (SAFAR) device. Crew member Mark Lee maneuvers successfully outside the Discovery, while Carl Meade photographs him against the background of Earth.

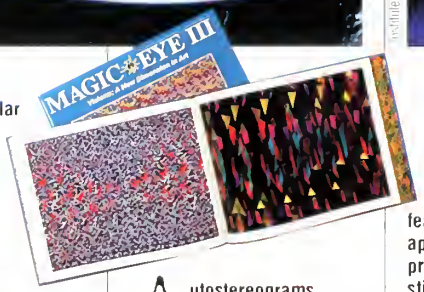
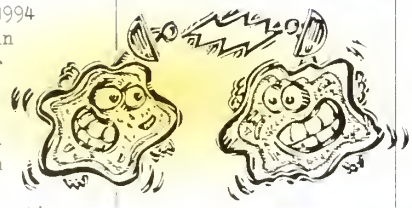
In Ethiopia, anthropologists discover the skull of a human ancestor, Australopithecus ramidus, 4.4 million years old. The new species has features midway between apes and humans and promises to provide clues to still earlier evolutionary stages.



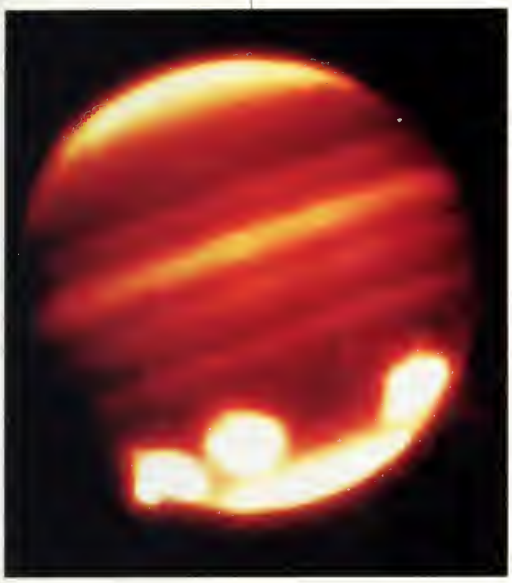
Autostereograms, popularly known as Magic Eye, cause legions of people to stare cross-eyed for long periods of time. Based on a mystery of neurology and 3-D objects, pattern elements fuse into left-eye and right-eye images of a single hidden object which appears to be floating.

Martin Rodbell and Alfred Gilman are awarded the 1994 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine for developing a model of cell communication that has medical implications from cholera to cancer.



The Food and Drug Administration institutes new food labeling on almost all foods in response to consumer protest against the many misleading claims of food producers. The new readable labels provide realistic serving sizes, list calories from fat, and allow you to compare different nutrient values.

Japan's "Love Love Simulation" computer program allows couples to take a non-scientific look at future offspring by digitally combining their own photos to predict a child's appearance.



Max-Planck-Institute für Astronomie, Heidelberg, Germany

Astronomers wait at every major telescope in the world to see the historic cosmic crack-up of the 21 big fragments of Comet Shoemaker-Levy 9 as it smacks into the atmosphere of Jupiter at 134,000 miles an hour. Plumes of fire shoot up hundreds of miles, high enough to become visible to telescopes on Earth.

NASA publishes a new report supporting the theory that a giant comet hit Earth 65 million years ago and vaporized 100 billion tons of sulphur to create the cloud barrier that froze Earth's atmosphere and killed the dinosaurs.

A cave is found in southern France, full of 300 vivid paintings of woolly-haired rhinos, bears, mammoths, panthers, and owls made about 20,000 years ago. The Stone Age artists also left behind bear skulls, flint knives, footprints, and fireplaces. Experts call it the archaeological find of the century.

The non-violent CD-ROM game Myst by Cyan, Inc. becomes a best-selling phenomenon, winning legions of devoted fans and spawning imitators. The fantasy-adventure's graphic visuals are hyper-real; the written word is the key to the mystery.

One of Lake Superior's enduring mysteries is solved by scientists and marine historians who explore the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, an ore carrier that sank with its crew in a 1975 storm. The ship, overused and in poor condition, was ripped apart by 90-mph winds and 30-foot waves. Most of the 29 crewmen are entombed inside the wreckage, well preserved in the 39° waters.

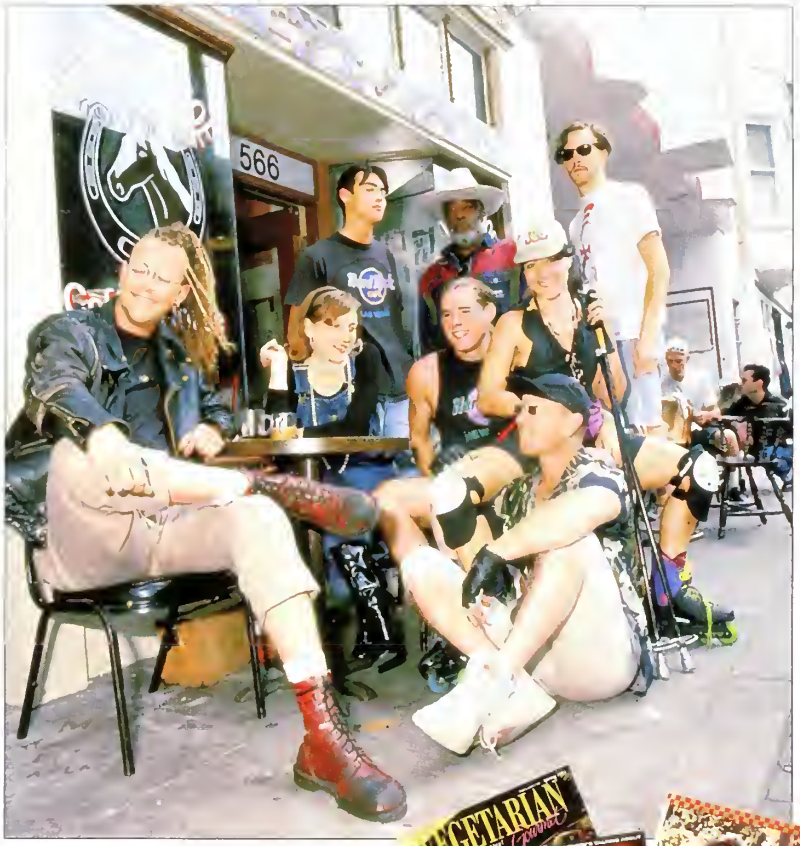
Young people serve their country by volunteering under a new program called AmeriCorps, where 20,000 people aged 17 and up work with community-based organizations in exchange for $7,500 plus money toward college tuition or loans.

One percent of the nation's 50 million school-age children learn at home as families seek alternatives to public schools. In a handful of high-tech experiments, kids submit homework by modem, download books and artwork from the Internet, and collaborate on academic projects with other children around the world.

A survey of college kids reveals their favorite sources of sugar and caffeine during all-night studying to be: powdered iced tea, peanut butter mixed with marshmallow cream, baby food, ramen noodles, raw cookie dough, and trail mix made from chocolate chips, graham cracker bits, and mini-marshmallows.



A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffeeshops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat litestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.
